The golf season is underway, so here are a few words of wisdom about my favorite pastime.

- Golf balls are like eggs. They're white, they're sold by the dozen, and every week you have to buy more.

- It takes longer to learn golf than it does brain surgery. But you can't ride on a cart, have a beer, and eat hot dogs while doing brain surgery.

- If you are keeping score and your opponent can't remember whether he shot a six or a seven, better give him an eight.

- A good partner is always one who's slightly worse than you. That's all well and good, but what if you can't find anyone who fits in that category?

Marshfield Girl Scouts donate to HMH

In honor of Girl Scout Week, the Marshfield Area Girl Scouts donated quilts and gifts to Hess Memorial Hospital. Packages were handed out to baby girls born in Mauston beginning in March.

MBMC offers rehab at outreach clinics

Mile Bluff now offers occupational and physical therapy services at the Delton Family Medical Center (across from the Lake Delton Wal-Mart) and at the Elroy Family Medical Center.

Whether you have a sports' injury, are recovering after a surgery, or have carpal tunnel syndrome — Mile Bluff's rehabilitation program has professionals trained to help you — no matter what your age.

Therapists are now accepting new patients, so talk to your practitioner about how physical and occupational therapy can benefit you.
